UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

MARY SMITH et al., individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

GOOGLE, LLC,

Defendant.

Case No. 5:23-cv-03527-PCP
(Consol. w/ 5:23-cv-04191-BLF)

JOINT STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED] ORDER TO MODIFY
CASE DEADLINES

[L.R. 6-2]

1 Pursuant to Local Civil Rule 6-2, Plaintiffs and Defendant Google LLC (“Google”) stipulate
2 as follows:

3 WHEREAS, on September 17, 2025, the Court issued a discovery order resolving several 4 discovery disputes; setting a December 17, 2025 deadline for Google to complete production of 5 certain documents; and setting a schedule for resolving the parties’ dispute regarding the 6 production of an anonymized sample of class event data. See ECF No. 126.

7 WHEREAS, the Court ordered (1) the parties to meet and confer, either in person or by 8 video conference, as to the types of data to be included, the relevant time frame, the size of the 9 sample, and a date for completion of production by November 21, 2025; (2) the parties to submit
10 the issue in dispute to the Court no later than 12 p.m. on November 26, 2025, if the parties are 11 unable to reach agreement on a sampling protocol by that date; and (3) that the Court would hold
12 a hearing by video conference on Tuesday, December 2, 2025 at 10 a.m. to address any open 13 issues.

14 WHEREAS, the parties have met and conferred first on November 18, and again on 15 November 21, 2025, to address the sampling protocol issues discussed in the Court’s discovery 16 order.

17 WHEREAS, the parties have worked cooperatively and have made substantial progress on 18 discussing the parameters of any data sampling.

19 WHEREAS, due to the complexities involved, the quantity of data, further investigation is 20 necessary to determine the nature and quantity of data that will be sufficient and proportional for 21 the needs of the case;

22 WHEREAS, the upcoming holiday and the reduced availability of relevant employees and 23 counsel for both parties impedes the ability for counsel to meaningfully determine whether and to what extent a dispute may exist.
24

WHEREAS, the parties agree that further time is needed to allow the parties to work towards reaching an agreement and, failing agreement, to ensure only a concrete, narrow, and ripe dispute is presented to the Court on the basis of a full factual record.

WHEREAS, the parties agree that they need approximately 14 additional days to attempt to reach a meaningful resolution on the sampling protocol issues.

WHEREAS, the parties have conferred and agreed to the below proposed modified schedule, subject to Court approval.

WHEREAS, there have been no other requests to alter the discovery dispute deadlines. Outside of the discovery dispute, the parties have stipulated to modify certain deadlines three times over the course of the case. The parties previously stipulated to extend the briefing schedule for Google's motion to compel arbitration, see ECF No. 54, as well as Google's time to respond to Plaintiffs' Consolidated Class Action Complaint, see ECF No. 85. On February 24, 2025, the parties also stipulated to modify case deadlines. See ECF No. 107.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED between the parties, subject to the Court's approval, that the discovery dispute schedule regarding the production of class event data is now as follows:

Event	Current Date	Revised Date
First Meet and Confer, in Person or by Videoconference	November 21, 2025	No change
Submission of Issues in Dispute to Court, if Unable to Reach Agreement	November 26, 2025, at 12:00 p.m.	December 10, 2025, at 12:00 p.m.
Court Hearing by Videoconference to Address Open Issues	December 2, 2025 at 10:00 a.m.	December 15, 2025, at 10:00 a.m., or at the Court's earliest convenience.
